

Dear Guest,

Welcome to Hollywood or as the locals call it: Tinseltown!

We hope this very summarized guide will give you a useful orientation of both the Hollywood Hills Suites as well as its surrounding location, to make your stay as pleasant and user-friendly as possible. It provides information of telephone and website addresses to the most essential services, and to day attractions and night entertainment, so you can live and play the Hollywood way!

Guest Guide to Hollywood and more.....

After a quick tour around your immediate neighborhood, we are sure it will be quite easy to feel at home-so let's get started.....

You are situated between two main Boulevards which run East/West and parallel to one another: Hollywood Boulevard to your South (below the property) and Franklin Boulevard to your North (above the property-towards the mountains, and the Hollywood Sign.

Hollywood Boulevard located 1.5 block South of you . Step out of house, turn left, walk down (and South) the hill, turn right and continue until you reach Hollywood Boulevard. On Hollywood Boulevard turn right and start walking West..... You will hit the Pantages theatre, and all the landmarks Hollywood is known for. One block further down is Hollywood and Vine. The Hollywood walk of fame begins here, so don't forget to look onto the pavement to locate your favorite movie star, director, singer or other entertainer's personal star dedicated to them. The metro station is located on this corner, which can take you to Downtown Los Angeles, Old Town Pasadena, Universal Studios and Long Beach.

Franklin Boulevard located 1.5 blocks north of you: Step out the house. Turn right and walk up the hill to Yucca. Turn right towards Gower, then left more. Now you are on Franklin Ave. This is a lovely street to explore. You can even see the Hollywood Sign on this corner of Franklin and Gower. But for a better view, turn right and continue walking right one block until you reach Beachwood street, which will take you up a long windy road towards the Hollywood Hills,...and eventually within a stone's throw of the iconic Hollywood Sign. Stop a moment and take a perfect photo op. If you keep walking you will reach the Griffith Park entrance where they offer horseback riding or you can take a beautiful hike up their endless trails into the mountains.

The adjacent neighborhood is Los Feliz, considered to be Los Angeles' own "West Village", just 3 miles down the road on Franklin heading East (or past the Franklin Village strip of restaurants and cafes). It offers a walkable, village atmosphere with movie theatres, a wide variety of cafes and restaurants, notably the quintessential Los Angeles jazz club, the Dresden, and Café Vermont, offering Broadway hits. French, Italian, Mediterranean, Vegan, Thai, Brazilian and Chinese cuisines are all of good quality and atmosphere, in this best known secret of Los Angeles.

Restaurants, Cafes, Clubs, Cinemas etc.

If you continue on Franklin, past Beachwood one more block on, you will arrive at Franklin Village, which has a great corner international Newspaper and coffee shop, the Daily Planet (Clark Kent/Superman's newspaper employer) offering magazines and newspapers from all over the globe-stop and have a cup of coffee while you read up on the news. A few doors down, you'll find a row of chic and casual bars, restaurants, cafes and a popular theatre house called the Upright Citizen's Brigade. Some venues include Birds, La Poubelle, Bourgeois Pig, Prizzi's Italian makes great pizzas and pastas. Sit in one of the outdoor seatings and watch the Hollywood residents read their scripts or walk their dogs.

Go have breakfast at the famous Café 101, (located inside the Best Western) on the corner of Gower and Franklin. This vintage coffee shop features classical style booths and fomica tables, and has been featured in countless movie scenes including Swingers, and others.

Past restaurant row, is a major grocery store, Gelson's which offers all the food items you will need. Or on Hollywood Blvd, go to Trader Joes located inside the W Hotel building (which you can see from the property) at Hollywood and Vine.

For Nightlife, just walk to Cahuenga, which is 4 blocks from (HNS), and two blocks past Hollywood and Vine. Turn left on Cahuenga and Hollywood Boulevard to find a series of more trendy bars, restaurants and clubs (Velvet Marguerita, Citizen Smith, Café 24 are just a few). Catalina Jazz Club (www.catlinajazz.com), located about 7 blocks away, on Sunset and Las Palmas, is a renowned venue for some of the best jazz in the city. For Sports Bars you can enjoy Dillons, a great Irish Pub, two blocks away on Hollywood Blvd, just next to the Pantages theatre, or Big Wang's on Selma and Cahuenga just 5 blocks away.

For live eclectic music, the Avalon (across from Capitol Records on Vine), and The Music Box on Hollywood and Gower, is just around the corner. Hotel Café is one of the best music venues for jazz, new age, and world music, located on Cahuenga and Selma (5 blocks away), and the Palladium, located on Sunset and Gower for great Rock concerts. Otherwise, you can hit the Sunset Strip further West, (and one block below Hollywood Boulevard) and go to the House of Blues, the Roxy, the Viper Room, Laugh Factory, the Comedy Store, and a whole row of chic and trendy restaurants along the Sunset Plaza strip.

Settle for what Hollywood is known for, the movies!! at any one of the dozens of cinema houses within easy walking distance such as the Arclight multiplex on Vine and Selma or Kodak theatre multiplex complex at Highland and Hollywood. Or try some of the quintessential glamorous movie houses of El Capitain (operated by Disney), Grauman's Egyptian Theatre, or Chinese Mann, where 3 days out of the week a star studded red carpet features a movie premiere.

Fitness and Wellness

On Hollywood Boulevard and Gower, you will find the Bally's Total Fitness Center. At Bally's (a 3-5 minute walk), they offer $20 monthly memberships which includes pool, sauna, and all the other features of the fitness center. Just mention that you are staying with us and show them your confirmation form, which is proof enough, and they will give you weekly and daily special passes.

Yoga lovers can also access Golden Bridge Yoga within convenient walking distance at Sunset and Longpre, Yummy Yoga on Hillhurst and Kingswell Ave, Yoga Pilates on Franklin Blvd and Vermont

Shopping

The famous Amoeba Music Store, Bed & Bath, Frederick's of Hollywood, or the Kodak Center with luxury name brands are all located within 3-10 blocks. For outdoor shopping eateries, visit the Grove just past Fairfax on Beverly Boulevard, or The Americana in Glendale, (both around 15-20 minutes car drive from the HHS) which offer lovely greenspace and playgrounds for toddlers, including fountain/musical synchronicity, and a light train to transport children and parents around. For toddlers there's even a playground they can enjoy while you have your lunch just across the way

Tours and Local Attractions

For daytime tours please refer to the following suggestions: Universal Studios, just go to the Metro on Hollywood and Vine, hop on and off one stop away. This stop brings you right into the studio.

Hollywood and city tours available: Rocking Hollywood tours, Starline tours (hop on and off) are a great way to see Los Angeles on your first day, giving you a an overview of the various celebrity, and some famous and infamous noteworthy locations

Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm are a day trip, and is located in Anaheim, another city, so you would need to rent a car for the day: It is about 1 to 1.5 hours drive. Magic Mountain is about 1.5 hours away towards Thousand Oaks

Festivals and Concerts

The Hollywood Bowl

(www.hollywoodbowl.com) is just 6 blocks away on Highland and Cahuenga. The Bowl is a friendly sociable place where Southern Californians gather to picnic and enjoy outstanding music under the stars, offers the Playboy Jazz Festival from June-September. Throughout the summer the LA Phil presents the best in jazz, classical, Broadway, and world music, featuring artists that range from Sarah Chang to Diana Krall, John Williams to Pet Shop Boys, and Nancy Wilson to Arcade Fire. The Bowl is the summer home of the Los Angeles Philharmonic and the home of the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra.

The Greek Theatre is an outdoor amphitheatre, is located in Griffith Park and also has concerts all summer long.

Live Shows and audience participation: You can get complimentary passes to participate as a live audience for any show, including the Tonight Show with Jay Leno, the irreverently satirical and very funny Real Time with Bill Maher, Wanda Sykes, Jimmy Kimmel Live (right here in Hollywood taped at the El Capitain) or game shows, please call the number provided in the guide, and get your passes to particular dates. The seating is not always guaranteed to fit your schedule, so call as soon as possible to make your desired slot easier to come by.

See the directory for links, contact information and hours of operation on the next page.

We hope you enjoy your stay and make the most of all the choices Los Angeles has to offer.

Thank you for staying at the Hollywood Hills Suites and we hope to see you again on your next visit to Hollywood.
